

2018 Triad of NC ISSA Chapter Security Summit

Wednesday June 20, 2018

Advanced Endpoint Security with Palo Alto Traps Track

Presented by Palo Alto Networks

8:30am-
12:30pm

- Take an effortless approach to managing attacks
- Break down the sophisticated threat lifecycle
- Prevent successful execution of advanced attacks originating from executables, data files or network-based exploits
- Take on the roles of the targeted individual attacker and security professional
- Understand the chain-like nature of exploits
- Experience the power of advanced execution control and cloud intelligence

12:30pm-
1:30pm

Lunch

Protecting AWS and Azure with Palo Alto VM Series Track

Provided by Palo Alto Networks

VM-Series on AWS

- Implement security policies to safely enable applications in your Amazon Virtual Private Cloud and protect your AWS network
- Understand common the VM-Series for AWS customer use cases
- Protect your AWS deployment by proactively blocking a brute force attack

VM-Series on Microsoft Azure

- Discuss common VM-Series on Microsoft Azure customer use cases
- Implement security policies to enable applications in your Azure Resource Group
- Protect your Azure deployment by proactively blocking a brute-force attack

Forensics Training

A training session on forensics.
Provided by National Digital Forensics

Giovanni Masucci, President/Sr. Examiner,
National Digital Forensics, Inc.

1:30pm-
4:30pm